Charles Bell : Engravings of the brain and nerves (Classics of Medicine Library) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Engravings of the brain and nerves (Classics of Medicine Library):

Facsimile of historic book that is among the many leather-bound books in the Classics of Medicine Library as published by Gryphon Editions with leather binding, gilt titling, marbled endpapers, gilt on all sides, silk ribbon placemaker.
